

Multi-Modality Aphasia Therapy (M-MAT)

M-MAT is a group therapy that aims to improve talking.

In M-MAT, non-verbal communication is used to help talking. M-MAT uses:

Gesture

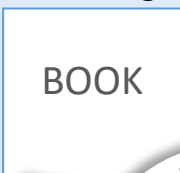

Drawing

Writing

Reading

Constraint Induced Aphasia Therapy Plus (CIAT Plus)

CIAT Plus is a group therapy that aims to improve talking.

CIAT Plus does not use gesture, drawing or writing. When a person can't find a word, the therapist:

W

1. Gives the first sound

WALKING

2. Shows the written word

CIAT Plus uses barriers between group members.

Which therapy works best?

We compared M-MAT, CIAT Plus and Usual Care.

Usual Care

“Usual Care” means therapy the person normally has.

- Some people have speech therapy
- Some people go to an aphasia group or use computer therapy at home
- Many people do not get regular therapy

Key results

✓ M-MAT and CIAT Plus both improved word finding.

CIAT Plus worked best for word finding. 12 weeks after therapy, both were equal.

✓ M-MAT and CIAT Plus both improved everyday communication.

✓ M-MAT and CIAT Plus both improved quality of life.

M-MAT worked best for quality of life.

Each person had a different response. Some people improved more than others.